Summary

The online webinar was organized by Electoral Literacy Club on World Student's Day on the topic - B.Ed Student's Personality Development through Teaching Internship Opportunities with the objective of highlighting the aim to prepare students for successful teaching careers and contribute to the overall development of their teaching skills and professionalism.

The online webinar kicked off with an inaugural ceremony that included the Digital lighting of the lamp by students of S.Y.B.Ed Sandeep Gupta and a traditional prayer by Priyanka Matekar to invoke blessings for the success of the mission. Hosted by Rasika Bhoir.

Risha Motwani gave a brief introduction about the Resource person "Meenakshi Ramteke Madam" Meenakshi Ramteke Ma'am share her views on Personality development through teaching Internship Opportunities.

The Principal of H.B.B.Ed college, Vashi – Swarnalata Harichandan Ma'am addressed Meenakshi Madam with her kind words.

In conclusion, teaching internship opportunities serve as a vital catalyst for the growth and development of future educators. These experiences allow them to bridge the gap between theory and practice, enabling the acquisition of essential skills, classroom management, and the ability to adapt to diverse student needs. Through reflection and mentor feedback, teaching interns refine their teaching methods and graduate better prepared for their careers. Thus, teaching internships not only enhance the educational journey but also contribute to the overall quality of teaching in our schools, ensuring that the educators of tomorrow are well-equipped to inspire and educate the next generation.
