Summery: The workshop titled “Story telling as pedagogical tools” Was held on 10th March 2023 via online mode. The program begins with the Digital lamp lighting and prayer of sarawati vandana. The Program arranged by Prof. Dr. Sati Shinde and Principal Dr. Swarnalatha Harichandran and Participated by B. Ed students. Host Reeta from SY B. Ed welcomed all the teachers and students. Priyanka Sharma and Neha More welcomed our special chief guests Mrs. Sarika Bichkar and Mrs. Deepali Gurkha. The purpose of the workshop was to bring together and provide better platform to enhance their skills and knowledge in “Story telling as pedagogical tools”. The event aimed to foster collaboration, exchange ideas, and promote professional development among participants. Reeta gave introduction on the topic Storytelling pedagogy is an educational approach that incorporates the use of stories as a central tool for teaching and learning. It recognizes the power of stories to engage students, stimulate their imagination, and facilitate meaningful learning experiences.

The First Resource Person

Mrs. Sarika Bichkar assistant teacher of KCG School Kalyan. She has been associated with Educational Institute for the last 22 years. Sarika Bichkar says pedagogy is a teaching method activates brains of the children. She explained Benefits, structures, types and 4 P’s (people, place, plot, and purpose) of storytelling and she taught how to use story telling method in Economic subject. It is clear to see that she was so interactive with her presentation and Communication skills.

The Second Resource Person

Deepali Gurkha assistant teacher of Ryan International school Sanpada and working with Byjus as Math’s and Coding Teacher. Deepali Gurkha is also alumni of our college. She Says story telling method of teaching makes learning memorable, builds connection and Relaxes Students. It has low Barriers. She involved story telling method to solve linear equation. Math’s being hard subject she could explain it to us efficiently.

Through this report we got to know a short summary of this workshop. The workshop was carried out efficiently without any errors and was very useful for increasing our basic knowledge about story telling as a pedagogical tool. We got to know more about storytelling, even though math’s or economics both are hard enough to confuse the students, and both the speakers with their well-planned presentation were able to make it easier. She was very clear and concise. We want to thank all the member involved in this workshop and appreciate their effort for carrying out this event in a systematic way. We are especially grateful to both the speakers who had presented an excellent presentation in front of the students and look forward for more such events and workshops.
