Descriptive Report:-

On 1th August 2024, we celebrated Lokmanya Bal Gangadhar Tilak's Death anniversary to honour the memory of one of India's greatest freedom fighters and social reformers, Lokmanya Bal Gangadhar Tilak (July 23, 1856 – August 1, 1920) was an Indian nationalist, teacher, and independence activist. He was a prominent leader in the Indian independence movement and famously declared, "Swaraj is my birthright, and I shall have it."

Programe conducted at Navi Mumbai Vidyalaya by F.Y.B.Ed students .Anchor Khushi Ganatra welcomed all .

Director Mr. Sanjay Mahajan, Principal Mr.Manaoj Gurav lit the lamp along with school mentor Ms.Roshani Kharat .Class 9 students Naman Pandey, Swayam, Shivanshu, Ankit Mandal, Soham and Raj Nandini shared insights into the life and legacy of Lokmanya Tilak by giving speeches .We took a moment to present a token of love on behalf of our second-year students, who recently completed their internship at Swami vivekanand School as a gesture of appreciation and affection.

Ms. Khushi Gnatra gave a vote of thanks and thanked to honorable Principal, Director and extend our sincere gratitude to all who made this event possible.
